

EndNote Web® Quick Reference Card

EndNote Web is a Web-based service designed to help students and researchers through the process of writing a research paper. ISI Web of Knowledge, EndNote, and EndNote Web are designed to work seamlessly together and streamline your research.

Undergraduate students can organize their references for citing in papers. Professional researchers and graduate students can use EndNote Web as the perfect complement to EndNote and other desktop writing tools, as well as for storing references between ISI Web of Knowledge search sessions.

EndNote Web enables you to...

- Quickly and easily collect reference information from a wide variety of online data sources such as PubMed and ISI Web of Knowledge via direct export, online search, or importing text files.
- Store up to 10,000 references in your own password-protected library, accessible anywhere that you have internet access.
- Share references with other EndNote Web users to simplify collaboration.
- Easily transfer references to or from EndNote on the desktop.
- Cite While You Write in Microsoft Word to insert references and format papers instantly.

The screenshot displays the EndNote Web interface. At the top, it says "Welcome, John" and "ISI Web of Knowledge | Log Out | Help". The main header is "EndNote Web provided by ISI Web of Knowledge". Below this are navigation tabs: "My References", "Collect", "Organize", "Format", and "Options". A "Show Getting Started Guide" link is also present.

On the left side, there is a "Quick Search" box with a search input field and a "Search" button. Below it, a "My References" sidebar shows "All My References (215)" with sub-categories: "Aquaculture (20)", "Asia - Shrimp (198)", "Economics - Shrimp (23)", "Taura Syndrome (87)", "[Unfiled] (0)", and "Quick List (0)". Under "Groups Shared by Others", it lists "Dolphins" and "Sea Turtles".

The main area is titled "All My References" and contains a table of references. The table has columns for "Author", "Year", "Title", and "Edit". Each row includes a checkbox, a "Copy to Quick List" button, and a "Delete" button. The references listed are:

Register

1 Register for Access

Register to create your own password-protected EndNote Web library.

Go to www.myendnoteweb.com and click the "Sign Up" link to register.

If you are already registered in ISI Web of Knowledge, you do not have to register for EndNote Web.

Go to www.myendnoteweb.com to login using the same login credentials.

2 Install Toolbars

From here you can download installers for the Cite While You Write plug-in for Microsoft Word for Windows or Macintosh as well as EndNote Web toolbars for Internet Explorer (Windows only) or Firefox (Windows or Macintosh).

3 Getting Started Guide

The first time you sign in to your EndNote Web account after registering, you will see the "Getting Started with EndNote Web" Guide which offers links to help you collect, organize, and format your references. You can view this Guide at any time by clicking the "Show/Hide Getting Started Guide" link in the upper-right of the page.

The screenshot shows the 'User Registration' page for EndNote Web. It contains several input fields: First Name, Last Name, Middle Initial, Password, Retype Password, E-mail Address, Retype E-mail Address, Primary Role/Title, Subject Area, and Bibliographic Software Use. A 'Password Guidelines' box specifies requirements: at least 8 characters, at least 1 number (0-9), at least 1 alpha character, case-sensitive, and at least 1 symbol. There are 'Opt in/Opt out' checkboxes for receiving training materials and a 'Please read this Agreement' section with 'I Agree' and 'I Decline' buttons. A sidebar on the right includes a 'Welcome, John' message, a 'Log Out' link, and a 'Help' link. Below the sidebar, there are links for 'Download Installers' and 'Show/Hide Getting Started Guide'.

The screenshot shows the main interface of EndNote Web. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'My References', 'Collect', 'Organize', and 'Format' tabs. Below this is a 'Quick Search' box and a 'Getting Started with EndNote Web' section. The 'Getting Started' section is divided into three numbered steps: 1. Collect (Collect references from electronic and traditional sources), 2. Organize (Organize your references for your research topics and papers), and 3. Format (Create a formatted bibliography for your paper or cite references while you write). The 'Format' step includes sub-points: Create a formatted bibliography, Cite While You Write™ Plug-in, and Format a paper. At the bottom, there is a 'Download Installers' link and a 'Show/Hide Getting Started Guide' link.

Collect References

1 Direct Export

When searching resources in ISI Web of Knowledge you can save search results directly to your EndNote Web library by clicking the "Save to EndNote Web" button. References saved to your EndNote Web library from these resources will display with an EndNote Web icon, letting you know that these references have already been saved to your library.

2 Online Search

To search, click the "Collect" tab, then click "Online Search". You can perform searches of ISI Web of Knowledge<sup>SM</sup> products, PubMed®, and many other library catalog and reference database sites directly through EndNote Web.

3 Manually add references

You can also type references into your library. Click "New Reference" under the "Collect" tab, select the reference type, and enter bibliographic data into each of the appropriate fields.

4 Import References

You can also add references to your library by importing references in a plain text file. Click "Import References" under the "Collect" tab, browse to select the text file, select the correct import filter, and then click the "Import" button.

Organize and Share References

1 My References

Under the "My References" tab you see a multi-column display that shows a summary of your references. In the left navigation pane you can see your own Groups of references as well as any Groups that other EndNote Web users have shared with you.

Click on the column headers to sort your references alphabetically by that field.

Click on any author's name to search for and display a list of references by that author. Click on any title to view the detailed reference view. Click the Edit link to modify a reference.

When you select a group under 'All My References' in the left navigation pane, the group appears displaying each reference's author, year, and title fields. Each page displays 10 references by default though you can set this to show up to 50 per page. Use the pagination menu at the bottom of each page to browse through the group.

Click in the checkboxes and use the "Add to group" dropdown to add references to a group. A single reference can be in more than one group.

2 Organize

Under the "Organize" tab you can create, delete or rename your own Groups (up to 500) to help categorize your references.

After creating a group, click the "Share Group" button to share the references in that Group with other EndNote Web users.

It is possible to have duplicate records in your library. Click the "Find Duplicates" link under the "Organize" tab to easily identify and delete duplicates. EndNote Web compares the Author, Year, Title, and Reference Type fields when identifying duplicates.

Cite While You Write™ in Microsoft Word

Use the EndNote Web Cite While You Write Plug-in to insert references and format citations and bibliographies instantly while you write your papers in Word.

1 Find Citations

and insert them into your manuscript.

2 Format Bibliography

Each time you find and insert a citation in your document, the bibliography instantly formats according to the style selected. Choose from thousands of available output styles.

3 Edit Citation(s)

to add or exclude information in the citation, add or delete a citation, or change the order of citations in a group.

4 Cite While You Write with EndNote Web, EndNote desktop, or both

Documents created using Cite While You Write in EndNote Web are also compatible with EndNote desktop. You can start a document using EndNote desktop, add citations to it from your EndNote Web library, and the citations and bibliography will be instantly formatted and updated. Under Preferences you can choose the Cite While You Write toolbar for Endnote desktop or EndNote Web.

Transfer References to / from EndNote desktop

You can seamlessly transfer references to or from EndNote desktop libraries using EndNote X.0.2 or later.

1 In EndNote

Select Tools / EndNote Web...

2 Select direction

You can either transfer from Web to Desktop (and specify allow duplicates or not) or from Desktop to Web (showing references, all references in library, or all references in a group).

3 Web Library Info

Click the "Web Library Info" button to see how many references you have in your EndNote Web library.

4 Transfer

Transfer up to 500 references at once.
